Contract Types

Short Contract (Undergraduate)

- The short contract covers term time only (Sunday at the start of 0th week to Saturday of 8th week each term)*
- All undergraduate students are required to be roomed on the Short Contract**.

Long Contract (Graduates)

- The long contract covers all three terms of an academic year, plus the Christmas vacation and the Easter vacation.*
- All postgraduate students are required to be rooms on the Long Contract.
- Those on long contracts stay in the same room throughout.
- Runs from Sunday at the start of 0th week in Michaelmas Term to Saturday of 8th week in Trinity Term

*The College reserves the right to refuse to accommodate or continue to accommodate any student in college at any time.

**For the year 2023/24 only, the international finalists may choose to be roomed on the short contract or the long contract.

Graduate Students

Numbers and Contract Type

The college will usually house 13 full-time graduate students in 30 Holywell and Maevadi Hall.

All graduate students are required to be housed on the Long Contract.

It is not normally possible to accommodate graduate students outside of their first year.

Room ballot

Graduate offer holders must indicate to the Admissions Officer by 30 June whether they would like to be included in the room ballot. The Accommodation Manager will draw the room ballot in early July. The order of names is recorded, and if a student does not take up their room, it will be offered to the next student on the list. Priority is given to any student with a registered physical disability.

Part-time students are not eligible to live in College, though they may book a College guest rooms for short periods, subject to availability.

Students on the Graduate-entry Medicine course are counted as graduates from the second year of the course and are counted in the room ballot as any other first-year graduate student.

Early Arrival

Students may move in before Sunday at the start of 0th week at the discretion of the Accommodation Manager. This is usually only granted where a student's course starts early.

If a student moves in prior to the Sunday of 0's week will be charged at the daily rate. This applies to everyone, including those who have extended course dates that require them to move in early.

Vacation Residence

Graduates are housed on the Long Contract, so vacation residence does not apply during the Christmas vacation and the Easter vacation.

In the Long vacation, students may stay at no charge until the morning after their last examination. If their course continues beyond the date of their last examination (i.e. they have classes to attend, and/or coursework to submit), they can be housed at the discretion of the Accommodation Manager. They are charged at the daily rate for any days beyond their last examination.

The deadline to request vacation residence is Friday of 6th week each term. Payment for vacation residence must be paid by 17:00 on the Thursday of 7th week of the term ahead of the vacation.

Graduate students will remain in the same room for the whole long contract period. Where vacation residence is granted, they may be required to move rooms.

Vacation residence is on a room-only basis with the exception of those granted residence for examinations. In these cases, three meals will be provided each weekday.

Leaving during the year

If a student moves out during the year, they are required to pay their battels for the remainder of the term. If the room is filled, a reimbursement may be made. The decision of whether to reimburse a student is at the discretion of the Accommodation Manager.

Undergraduate Students

Definitions

Finalists: Undergraduate students in their final year of study, i.e. BA students in their 3rd year, and MEng and MSci students in their 4th year.

Senior Status Lawyers: These students are on course for two years and one term, starting in Trinity term. They are guaranteed accommodation for the two full years of their course. They are not guaranteed accommodation for the Trinity term in which they start, but if a room is available, they should be accommodated.

Other Senior Status courses: These students are on course for two years. They are guaranteed accommodation for both years.

Graduate-entry Medics (GEM): This is a four-year course. These students are counted as undergraduates for the first year of their course and are guaranteed accommodation for that year. They may enter the room ballot as graduate students in the second year of their course.

Numbers and contract type

All undergraduate students are required to be housed on the Short Contract.

The number of rooms available for an academic year are determined in advance by the Accommodation and Housekeeping Manager, the Domestic Bursar, and the Academic Administrator.

The Academic Office will make the Accommodation Manager aware as soon as possible of any anticipated Senior Status Lawyers, Visiting Students, or undergraduates returning from suspension who may wish to be considered for accommodation.

We undertake to house all 1st year undergraduate students and all finalist undergraduate students who request accommodation. We endeavour to accommodate all Visiting Students in College. Where this is not possible, we will endeavour to provide alternative accommodation, but this is not guaranteed.

Those on the MEng and MSci courses may choose to live in for either their 3rd year OR their 4th year. They are not permitted to reserve a room for both their 3rd year and their 4th year.

Students on the second year of their course may ballot for any remaining rooms.

Room ballot

Those wishing to be housed for their second year will be invited to participate in the room ballot in Hilary Term of their first year. Those wishing to take part must submit their names by Friday of 5th week. The room ballot will be drawn by the Accommodation Manager in the presence of a member of the JCR. Students will be informed of their position in the ballot. Priority is given to any student with a registered physical disability.

The room ballot gives the indication of being roomed; no rooms are guaranteed until numbers are confirmed during the summer, as the first year undergraduates must be housed first.

Early Arrival

Students may move in before Sunday at the start of 0th week at the discretion of the Accommodation Manager. This is usually only granted where a student's course starts early.

If a student moves in early, they are charged at the daily rate. This applies to everyone, including those who have extended course dates that require them to move in early.

Vacation Residence

Undergraduates may apply for vacation residence where they have examinations outside of term time. Vacation residence is approved at the discretion of the Accommodation Manager. Those with examinations after the end of term may stay free of charge until the morning after their last exam.

Finalists already living in college may apply for residence over the Easter vacation free of charge. This is also at the discretion of the Accommodation Manager.

Undergraduates granted vacation residence are likely to be required to move rooms.

The deadline to request vacation residence is Friday of 6th week each term. Payment for vacation residence must be paid by 17:00 on the Thursday of 7th week of the term ahead of the vacation.

Vacation residence is on a room-only basis but meals may be available under some circumstances.

Leaving during the year

If a student moves out during the year, they are expect to pay for their room for the remainder of the term. If the room is filled, a reimbursement may be made. The decision of whether to reimburse a student is at the discretion of the Accommodation Manager.
